Greetings!

I'm Amelie, a passionate content creator on Instagram and TikTok, pursuing my dream of becoming a full-time influencer.

My journey into content creation truly took off during my one-year adventure in Thailand, where I not only discovered my passion but also gained the confidence to share my life with my growing audience.

My content revolves around the latest TikTok trends, beauty, lifestyle, fashion, and my captivating experiences in Thailand.

I'm thrilled to have collaborated with esteemed brands like Cider, Halara, Commense, as well as skincare giants like Shiseido or Yepoda. My creative spirit is always open to new opportunities, I'm eager to channel my creativity into crafting outstanding videos for you. Let's embark on this exciting journey together!
