SKILLS

Technical background gives me a unique point of view in problem solving and the automation of administrative work.

Extremely proficient with computers and most common spreadsheet software. Can learn actual database software easily as needed.

Very personable and has strong experience working crowds of both regular voters and donors.

Strong next-step thinking, can anticipate future needs and challenges for the situation at hand before they arrive.

Intrinsically motivated. Knowing I produce a high quality of work and complete tasks quickly and accurately is its own reward.
